

Joseph Ferro, MD
Worldwide Corporate Medical Director
Johnson & Johnson

Seasoned physician executive with experience on all aspects of occupational medicine and employee health Extensive international experience including developing our occupational health programs in Asia, South America, and Europe. Developed medical surveillance for oncologicals utilized by the Chinese government.

Provided early training in ergonomics in China and India.

Integrated primary care services in conjunction with our occupational health services in developing countries. Currently run a world class executive and employee health program, manage global travel health, emerging health issues and pilot innovative medical programs with business partners.

Experience

WW Corporate Medical Director
Johnson & Johnson
January 2001 – Present

Senior Medical Director
Bristol-Myers Squibb
1991 – 2001

MD, 1985
University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey
New Jersey Medical School

Board Certified Internal Medicine

New York University

Currently serves on the board of the Parker Home in New Jersey; Nominating Committee Chair (<http://www.franciseparker.com/Home.aspx>)
(Robert Wood Johnson legacy – net assets $1.2 billion)